

HOSOO RESIDENCE

Nestled deep within the alleyways of old urban Kyoto, the HOSOO residence is conveniently located yet a hidden gem. Its interiors of varying colours and textures softly diffuse the light, which is captured by the Nishijin artwork, dramatically glistening in the dark. The gentle light reflected by the walls and textile slowly unveils fragments of the dimly lit space.

We are delighted to announce the opening of HOSOO RESIDENCE on the 12th July 2017. It will be located in Karasuma-oike, Kyoto, and our residence will be limited to one group per day. In this highly exclusive accommodation, guests will enjoy an environment furnished by HOSOO, a textile brand established in 1688, which provides high-quality textile to the world's luxury market and its top brands by utilising traditional Nishijin weaving techniques.

Located deep in the alleyways of historic Kyoto, south of the Imperial Palace, the HOSOO residence is an re-adaptation of a machiya house fully reimagined with great respect for the traditional architectural design and with the restoration of the exterior and interior walls executed using classic Japanese Sakan plastering techniques. Unique Nishijin artworks are also part of the interiors. The house invites guests to experience ancient Japanese culture augmented by furniture and lighting especially curated and developed for this residence. The true value and richness of the space can only be appreciated in person.

The residence is situated about 15 minutes from Kyoto Station by taxi, or 4 minutes on foot from the Marutamachi Subway Station. The location is convenient for sightseeing, surrounded by great places to eat and shop, allowing for visitors to enjoy various aspects of Kyoto all within walking distance. The area is brimming with fantastic restaurants, cafés and bars. Historical attractions, such as the Nijō Castle and the Kyoto Imperial Palace, are only 5 minutes away on foot and therefore easily reachable. Shopping can also be enjoyed within easy walking distance along the southern Oike Street.

Nishijin is a weaving technique unique to Kyoto. Popularised by nobles, the imperial courts of Kyoto and the samurai class, Nishijin has been developed over 1,200 years ago. HOSOO was established in 1688 as a purveyor to large temples and shrines. Today, the brand continues to produce and sell obi-belts and kimono as well as designing for the world's luxury market of interiors and fashion, offering innovative and contemporary textiles based on traditional weaving techniques and materials.
